Description

The Cabinet of ministers of Mauritius has brought about a ban on the export of all scrap metals from Mauritius .. The decision was taken without any consultation with the exporters or with the other stakeholders in the recycling and export of metal scraps , wastes and residues industry . The decision was taken on the 15/01/16 was promulgated in march and was effective on the 30th of june 2016 .. The metal recycling and export industry exists since after world war 2 and we were until recently 13 exporters .. This affects 250 direct jobs and 2000-3000 indirect jobs of collectors, merchants, traders and lorry operators etc .. It is totally contrary to free trade, competition, export, PMEs, etc etc ..We have discussed lengthily with the Minister of Commerce and during our negotiations the Ban was implemented .. It is absolutely unfair and encourages a monopoly and blockages . This ban was on all scrap metals whether Steel, copper , aluminium and other metals was brought to favour one only steel mill operating on the island which takes only mild steel scrap . This mill is now dictating its terrible conditions to all the market . Besides this is harmful to recycling, and will encourage generation of metal pollution and eyesores like in the old past ..

| 01/11/2016 | Résolu - Guidance | Dear User, There has been a Cabinet decision taken on 23 September 2016 which reads as follows: "After taking into consideration the impact of the ban on export of scrap metal on metal industries operating in the Manufacturing and the Freeport Sectors, Cabinet has agreed to those companies, which import raw metal, being allowed to export their metal waste and by-products." Subsequently, and as per reply above from the concerned Government Agency, the Scrap Metal Regulations have been amended to allow some flexibility in the exports of scrap metal. We therefore consider this obstacle as being resolved. Best Regards, The National Focal Point |
